Located in world-famous Woodstock, the Colony is just two hours north of NYC, a convenient one-hour drive from Albany International Airport or Stewart International Airport.

Our venue is situated in the heart of the happening village, walking distance to an array of charming boutiques, cozy cafés, and stellar eateries, yet, set back just enough to provide your event with ample privacy. Lodging options abound in-town or in nearby Kingston, Saugerties, or Rhinebeck, ideal for out-of-towners who wish to extend their stay in our beautiful region by exploring walkable main streets or the scenic Catskills.

ABOUT THE COLONY

The Colony is a venue unlike any other. Our historic building is embedded deep in Woodstock's rich cultural setting, with its own distinct vibe harkening to the artist's colony that existed long before the '60s—a Woodstock that celebrates arts and culture, sans tie-dye.

The Colony has a storied past. Once a hotel housing artists and travelers who passed through Woodstock nearly a century ago, our striking building was transformed into a premier venue, maintaining its uniquely bohemian aesthetic, but modernized to meet today's entertainment standards.
